SATURDAY EVENING, JANUARY 20.

A Fatal Feud.

Near Pineville, Ky., yesterday Bob Jones and Lee Davis, two prominent members of the Parton faction, were killed by Turner and his men. It is said that the men were waylaid. Jones and Davi', the two murdered mer, were known as arowed enemies of Berry Turner. They had assisted in his capture about a year and a half ago, when he was lodged in jail in Ioniville. Fince when he was indeed in jail in I contrible. Fince Turner made his escape these two men have been endeavoing to effect his capture. They had gone so far as to offer a reward of $200 for Turner's apprehension and the ontisw has doubtless been awaiting an opp riunity for vengeance. The friends of Manuel Porton, who was killed by Turner lest Standay were given a chance to bury friends of Manuel Perton, who was killed by Turner last Saturday, were given a chance to bury the body Wednesday, but not until it had been natifally devoured by hogs. Berry Turner comes from the famous Turner family of Yellow Creek.
He has gathered about him a most disperate rang of mountaineers and defies the law as much as he does his ansmies. His stronghold is just on the Tennersee line. The sheriff of Claiperne. Tenn, has notified the officers of Louisville that he will furnish a posse of twenty men to assist in the capture of Turner and his gang, and the attempt will probably be made.

He did pray, and prayed so fervently that the party was turned into a prayer meeting. A minister was sent for, baff the party confessed themselves noder conviction, and now the whole

The GAZETTE is now the oldest paper in the State, and with few exceptions the oldest in the country, and its usefulness has been demonstrated and appreciated during the NINETY-ONE YEARS of its existence. In its columns has always been found a mirror of passing events and the careful chronicling of the history of what is going on in the world has ever been its aim. It is always welcomed in the household, while in the counting room and work shop it has become invaluable.

The GAZETTE, situated as it is so close to Washington, the great centre of news, enjoys daily the benefit of the Associated Press Dis. Consequently it is an every-day occurrence for the GAZETTE to publish telegrams from the various European capitals about twelve or fifteen hours earlier than the morning papers. Correspondence from Washington, Richmond and every saction of the State is published regularly, and all events of interest occurring within the bounds of the Commonwealth are to be found in the columns of the GAZETTE.

The local department furnishes a full and complete history of everything that occurs in and near the city, and this feature will, as ever. receive careful attention.
